

PRODUCT/SERVICE

Provide the U. S. Department of Energy with the Westlaw legal research commercial timesharing service. Service must include federal and state case law, the United States Code, the Code of Federal Regulations, the Federal Register, and Keycite case history service. Service must also include topical libraries such as military justice and government contracts, contain decisions, and contain statutory and administrative material related to a particular subject.

Other items of service that must be made available on a pay-as-you-go basis include ALR/AMJUR, Public Records, and BNA for some accounts, as well as access to Ancillary Content including Briefs for other accounts.

Subscriber is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to access Westlaw. Westlaw consists of various West-owned and third party databases, services, functions and remotely-accessed gateways (collectively "Features") which may change from time to time. Access to certain Features may be restricted. Except as otherwise provided with respect to certain Data, the license includes the right to download and temporarily store insubstantial portions of Data ("Downloaded Data") to a storage device under subscriber's exclusive control solely to (i) display internally such Downloaded Data and (ii) to quote and excerpt from such Downloaded Data (appropriately cited and credited) by electronic cutting and pasting or other means in memoranda, briefs and similar work product created by subscriber in the regular course of its research and work. Subscriber may also create printouts of Data for internal use and for distribution to third parties if such third parties agree not to further distribute the printouts. Subscriber may, on an occasional basis and via Westlaw functionality, direct West to transmit individual documents in electronic format to individual internal user(s).
